Price-Slashing Sale

Slashing on Winter Goods!

DECEMBER, 30, 1922

I am over-stocked on Winter Goods, regardless of the fact that my prices have been under any mail order catalogue. Because I have not had to make replacements and now, although Regular Prices are below present market values, I must sell. These goods were purchased on the basis of 14 cent cotton and low price wool. Today a tariff of 50 cents per pound will undoubtedly be cold. Winter weight goods will probably be needed till late spring and, at this Sale, the goods you will need are being offered. I will fill mail orders at sale prices, and deliver without expense. Cash however must accompany all mail orders.
